

Welcome to Nacka Library

In the library you will find books in Swedish and other languages.
There are also language courses, books on tape, newspapers and magazines.
All libraries provide access to the Internet.

You will need a library borrowing ticket. To get one you will need to produce some form of identification.

Tickets are free and are valid for all the public libraries in Nacka.

You are personally responsible for your ticket and any books you borrow.

If you lose your ticket, please let us know.

Borrowing is free, but we do charge fees for late returns.

If you build up a debt of SEK 100 you are not allowed to borrow more books.

You must also pay for any books you lose.

The return date is printed on the receipt you get when you borrow the books.

You can extend this period a maximum of two times. To do this, take the books with you to the library, telephone us or visit the library website: www.nacka.se

Books which are not currently available in Nacka can be borrowed from other libraries.

The library staff will be pleased to help you.
